Parent Instruction Guide

This is our guide for parents to help them get ready! A PDF version of the guide is sent to the parents at the time of scheduling. This file includes:

- A flowchart of all the preparation steps (slide 3)
- Hardware recommendation (slide 5)
- Zoom guidance (slides 6 - 9)
- Network checking (slides 10)

Stanford Online Study

Parent Instruction Guide

Things to check now:

Step One: hardware

- ✓ I know the computer and its approx. screen size we will be using. If unsure, go to page 3.
- *Let us know if you plan to use a tablet!

Step Two: Zoom

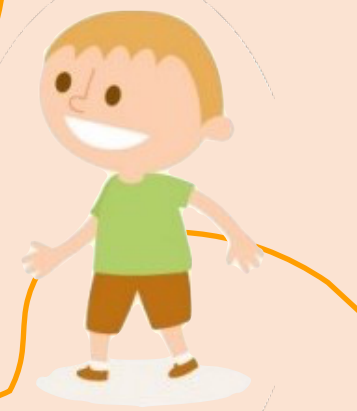

- ✓ I have Zoom installed and have used it before.
- *If not, go to page 4.

Step Three: network

- ✓ My connection speed is videoconference-friendly. Details on page 8.

Before we meet:

- ✓ Turn off emails, Slack, or other applications.
- ✓ Unplug external screens and monitors, or disable them.

We look forward to seeing you soon!

Table of Contents

- Hardware recommendation (p.5)
- Zoom guidance (p.6 - 9)
- Network checking (p.10)

● Hardware recommendation

We recommend using desktops or laptops with 13" screen size or larger.

If you plan to use a tablet, (e.g., iPads, Surface) please let us know!

● Zoom Guide

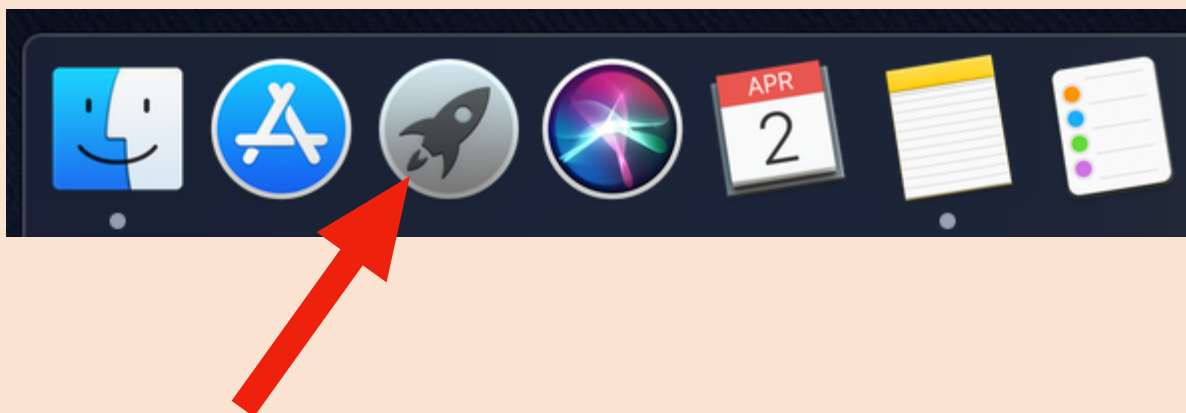

Zoom is the video call platform that we'll use during the experiments.

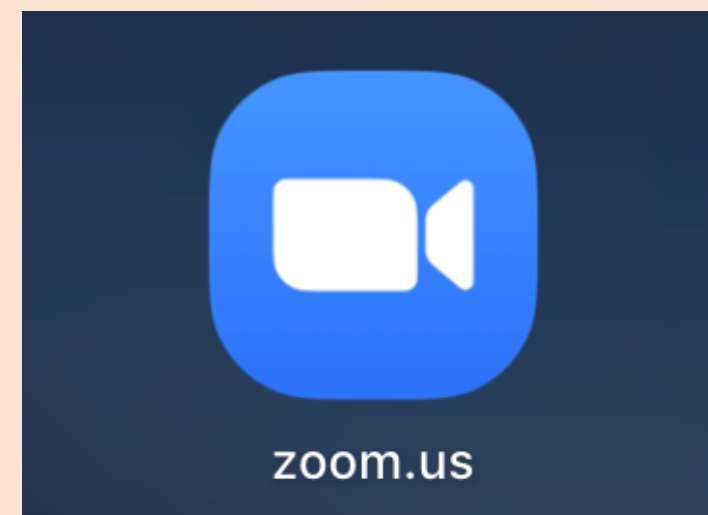

● Download Zoom

For Mac Users:

Step 1: Zoom should be one of the default apps on your computer. Go to the 'launchpad' icon at the bottom of your screen, you can find it among your other computer programs.

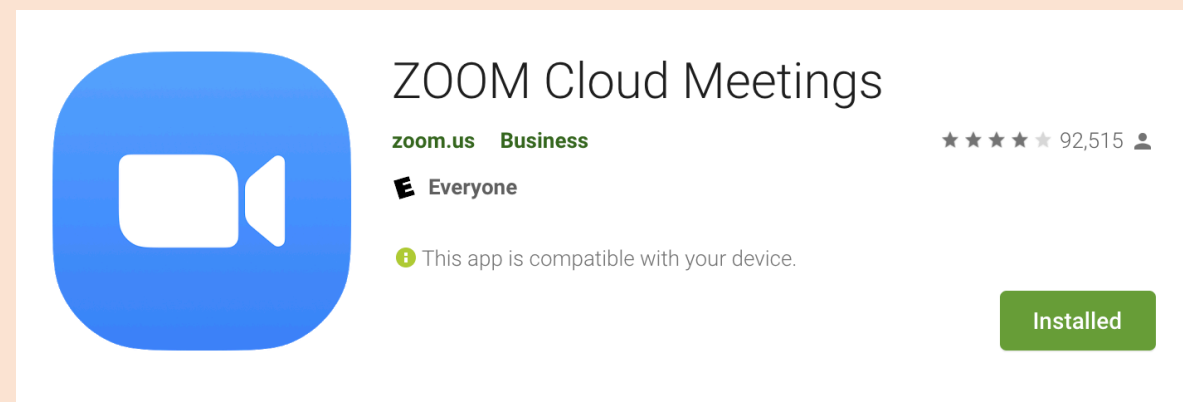

Step 2: Click the 'Zoom' icon.

● Download Zoom

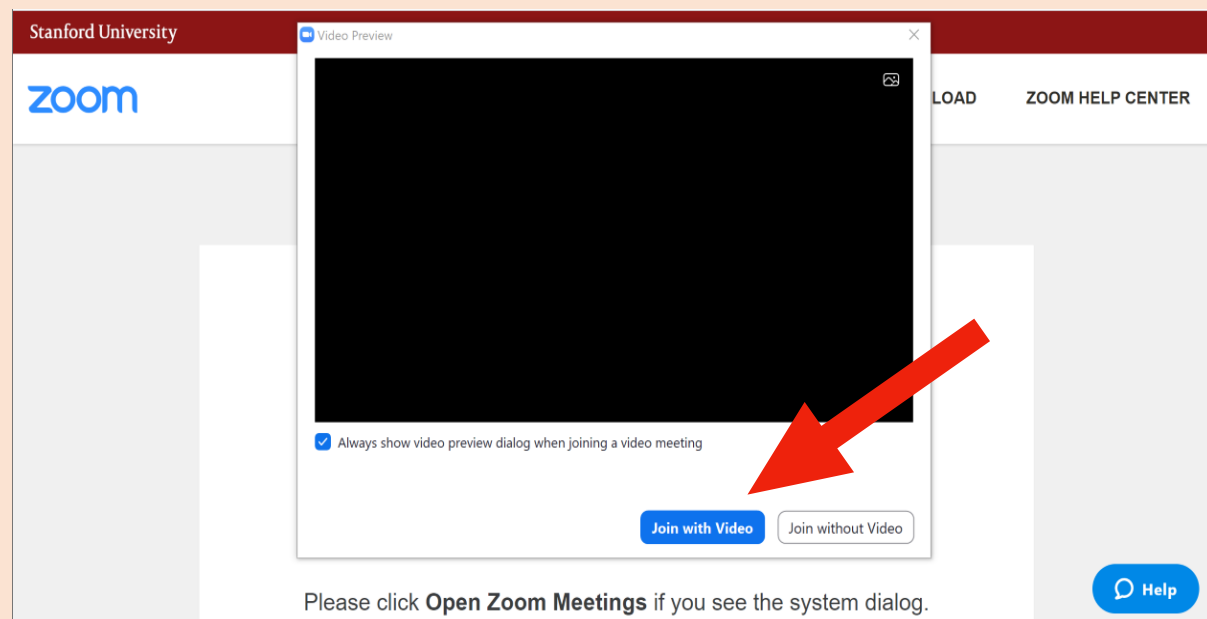

For PC/Windows Users:

Step 1: If you don't have Zoom already, you can download it from here.

● Entering the virtual room

Step 1: You will receive an email from stanford.kidsonline@gmail.com. This email will include a Zoom link like this: <https://calendly.com/stanford-kidsonline/online-studies-3to5>

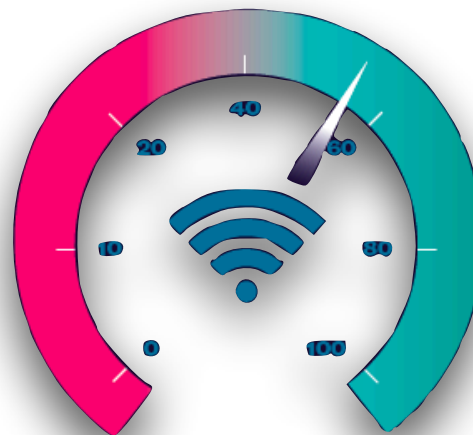

Step 2: After seeing launching, click 'Open Zoom'.

● Network Checking

Please visit speedtest.net, and write down the upload and download speed to tell our researchers.

We recommend running the test a few times to check network consistency. It will help us anticipate the video quality of our Zoom meeting.

Thank you again for joining us!
We look forward to seeing you soon!
